- Rules for use of the cross-country ski trails
- Dogs are generally not allowed on cross-country ski trails. Stop in at the tourist office to find out which trails dogs are permitted on.
- You may only enter the trails while wearing cross-country skis.
- Each cross-country skier must behave in such a way as to not endanger or harm others.
- Obey markings, signals or signs must be obeyed and the prescribed skiing direction must be adhered to.
- Each double track constitutes a single trail unit. Keep to the right (even if several trails occasionally run next to each other). Groups, please ski in single file on the right-hand track
- Overtake to the left or right. The skier in front is not obliged to yield the track to those who are passing, unless he is able to do so without endangering himself or others.
- When overtaking, being overtaken or approaching skiers,
- keep your poles tight to your body. • When skiers encounter each other coming in opposite directions, always keep to the right. Skiers who are climbing a hill must yield to those coming down.
- Speed especially when skiing downhill should be appropriate to your ability, the terrain, visibility and the number of people on the trail.
- If standing still or in the event of a fall get off the track without delay. In the event of an accident, other skiers are obliged to render assistance as necessary.
- Skiers involved in accidents must present some form of official I.D.!
- Never leave the designated trails.

And even more winter...

Lots of sun and even more snow: this is Salzburg's Lungau region in winter. The Salzburg's Lungau offers, at an average elevation of 1000 m above sea level, perfect conditions for winter sports enthusiasts. The Lungau region is well known as the sunniest region in Austria and therefore skiers, ski tourers, cross-country skiers and winter hikers awaits an unbeatable combination of a beneficial mountain air and crunching snow. And so that you know what to expect on and off the ski slopes and trails, here is an overview of Salzburg's Lungau region's 2021/22 winter brochures.

Info SkiLungau:
